

From principal Desk :

The Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women began its journey as erstwhile Rishi Bankim Chandra College on 15th January, 1947. In order to provide scope for general education to the Girls' of locality. From August, 1964, a morning section solely meant for women was started within the same premises. The college was rechristened as Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women on and from 13th July 1984.

Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women is affiliated to West Bengal State University, Barasat and UGC recognized. The College offers under graduate (Honours & General) courses in Arts and Science streams and the college is a study centre for higher education facilities:- Directorate of Open and Distance Learning(DODL), Kalyani University affiliated in ENGLISH, BENGALI, HISTORY and EDUCATION from 2014.

We have well qualified, trained faculty members. They have excellent academic credentials in their respective line of specializations and long years of teaching experience imparts quality education to students. All non-teaching staff of this college are very helpful and make cordial relations with students.

I thank the Governing Body for constant encouragement and support. RBC College for women has experienced dynamic and open minded management together with committed staff welcome all the new students.

I convey my best wishes to the new entrants and all senior students and urge them to uphold code of conducts and put up a good academic performance through hard-work. I congratulate them all and wish them success in their future Endeavour.