About the College :

Located in the adjacent area of East Kanthalpara, the hallowed birthplace of the prominent litterateur and nationalist Rishi Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay, Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women began its journey as erstwhile Rishi Bankim Chandra College on 15th January, 1947. From August, 1964, a morning section solely meant for women was started within the same premises. The college was rechristened as Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women on and from 13th July 1984 and has been functioning independently since then.

The college was granted sanction under University Grant Commission 2f and 12b acts in the year 1998. Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women has been accredited by NAAC in January 2025 with B++ Grade in the third cycle. The college offers 14 core (Major) courses under NEP and 19 DSC/GE(Minor) courses under NEP. The college has extended its infrastructural facilities by constructing a new building to the east of its present campus named Vidyasagar Bhavan. With a new block as its stronghold, the college is on its way to expand the facilities which might have faced some constraints earlier. Now, it boasts of a better equipped spacious library, more classrooms, laboratories for new courses like Journalism and Physiology, rooms for National Service Scheme and National Cadet Corps. In addition, the college now owns two separate two storied buildings of which Ananga Bhavan houses Dept. of Zoology, day care centre, additional classrooms and laboratories, NCC and NSS offices, and the other building is being modified right now for classrooms to cater to the demands of NEP guidelines.

Inclusive in its vision of providing scopes of academic progression to the students within the same campus, the college has introduced M.A.(Regular) in Bengali under WBSU. The college also runs a study centre of IGNOU which provides M.A. courses in English, Political Science and Sociology, PG Diploma courses in Translation and Rural Development, and also a certificate course in Rural Development. This is with the objective of making higher education available to the maximum number of (both male & female) students and also to provide opportunities to those students who fail to get admissions in regular post-graduate programmes.

For inculcating co-curricular skills and increasing social outreach of the institution the college has units of NCC and NSS. The NCC unit is run by Lieutenant Utsa Biswas, NCC Officer as well as a faculty member. The NCC cadets regularly participate in various camps. The college has two units of NSS which are functioning dynamically. Prof Moumita Biswas is the programme officer of Unit 1 and Dr. Tulima Dey is the programme officer of Unit 2. Our NSS volunteers regularly organize educational camps, health camps, Dengue awareness camps among many others so that students can nurture social solidarity and responsibility which will help them in being better citizens. Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women successfully runs U.G.C. sponsored career guidance courses for students belonging to SC/ST/OBC and minority communities. Every session sees to the arrangement of such programmes and courses which develop the personality and communicative skills of the students. Placement oriented training courses are provided in Communicative English to the final year students. Career counselling programmes are organized for the outgoing students to help them make better choices in the future. This apart, Teacher-Guardians meetings, grievance redressal cell and similar avenues allow checks and balance in the teaching learning system and other services provided by the college.

In addition to the regular courses, the college runs versatile value-added courses and certificate courses for the students. These are conducted by different departments for enhancing the students' grasp over the subject as well as their professional credentials.

OBJECTIVES :

- To provide ample scope for the spread of higher education for women in conventional and modern career-oriented courses.
- To impart higher education, viz B.A., B.Sc., both Major, Minor and such other courses to which extension of affiliation has been granted by the West Bengal State University or the appropriate authority.
- To promote educational, cultural, social knowledge and exercise of physical abilities amongst the students irrespective of caste, creed and religious faith.
- To help the needy, poor and intelligent students for pursuing higher studies.
- To provide need-based education along with formal education.
- To cultivate a dynamic, acceptable mind which will be resourceful and enterprising in all situations.
- To foster competence in students so that they may be able to tackle the problems of future life.

Principal's Message :

Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women began its journey as erstwhile Rishi Bankim Chandra College on 15th January, 1947. In order to provide scope for general education to the girls of locality, from August, 1964, a morning section solely meant for women was started within the same premises. The college was rechristened as Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women on and from 13th July 1984.

Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women is affiliated to West Bengal State University, Barasat and is recognized by the UGC. The College offers under graduate (Major & Minor) courses in Arts and Science streams and the college is a study centre for higher education facilities—(1) a study centre under Indira Gandhi National Open University and (2) MA in Bengali (regular) under WBSU.

We have well qualified, trained faculty members. They have excellent academic credentials in their respective line of specializations and long years of teaching experience which impart quality education to students. All non-teaching staff of this college are very helpful and keep cordial relations with students. I thank the Governing Body for their constant encouragement and support. RBC College for Women has experienced dynamic and open-minded management together with committed staff.

I welcome all the new students on behalf of the institute. I convey my best wishes to the new entrants and all senior students and urge them to uphold code of conducts and put up good academic performances through hard-work. I congratulate them all and wish them success in their future endeavours.
