What is ABC ID?

The Academic Bank of Credits \(ABC\) is designed to enable students to move freely between different Higher Education Institutions in the country. It provides a "credit transfer" system that allows students to switch from one program to another, helping them achieve a Degree, Diploma, or Postgraduate Diploma.

ABC ID is linked to a system called APAAR, which ensures accountability and transparency by keeping track of students' progress and records.

How Does the ABC System Works?

The ABC System allows students to transfer credits between different educational institutions. "Credits earned by a student in one program at an institution can be transferred or redeemed at another institution with the student's consent. This credit transfer is crucial for successful study mobility."

Benefits

The ABC ID offers numerous benefits that significantly enhance the educational experience for students.

- Enable Student Mobility : It allows students to switch between schools easily without needing to reapply or lose any previous work.
- Foster Academic Flexibility : This system gives students the freedom to shape their education according to their own goals and desires.
- Empower Personal Learning Paths : With the ABC ID, students can choose their own educational routes, making learning more tailored and effective for them.
- Recognize Learning Achievements : It ensures that the hard work and achievements of students are acknowledged across various institutions, affirming their dedication and effort wherever they decide to study.

Features

The ABC system offers a range of features designed to enhance the educational experience for students.

- Multiple Entry and Exit Points : Utilize the flexibility of the ABC system to start or pause your educational journey as needed, offering unparalleled adaptability to your life's changes.

- Anytime, Anywhere Learning : Access educational materials and courses from any location at any time, breaking down geographical and time barriers, through the ABC system's supportive platform.
- Study at Your Own Pace : Take advantage of the ABC system's flexibility to accommodate your unique learning speed and style, essential for a personalized education experience.
- Transparency in Education : Rely on the ABC system's commitment to clarity, providing clear information about courses, credits, and requirements, helping you make informed decisions about your education.

Achievements and Statics

As of the latest update, there are 29.18 crore students and learners registered on the platform. Furthermore, there are 22.23 lakh unique student credit awards that have been seeded with APAAR/ABC ID.

In terms of academic institutions (AIs), there are a total of 1,855 universities, including Institutes of National Importance (INIs), that have registered on ABC. Out of these, 580 academic institutions have uploaded credit data for the years 2021, 2022, and 2023.

Additionally, there is a total of 45.78 lakh academic records with credit data that have been successfully mapped with APAAR/ABC IDs, indicating a significant level of engagement and data integration within the educational framework.
