

2.

Dr. Samapti Dhara

M.A (Geography), P.Hd.

Assistant Professor(Specialization: Environmental Geography)

Experience: 18 Years.

RESEARCH WORK AND PUBLICATIONS

- 1) Doctoral Thesis on “Tropical Cyclones in the East Coast of India and their impacts on Fishing and Tourism in the West Bengal Coast” published under University of Burdwan (2002)
- 2) “Resource Potentialities of Domesticated Forests and Mapping Issues. A case study of the Barddhaman district, West Bengal” (Joint paper). NATMO MONOGRAPH NO 8, 1988.
- 3) Developmental Issues in Cyclone-prone (Andhra Pradesh). NATMO MONOGRAPH NO 10, 1990.
- 4) “Management of Micro order Watershed, Natural and Man-made, Through Domesticated Vegetation” Journal of the Indian Geographical Foundation (1994) vol.1 PP-46-55.
- 5) “Tropical Cyclones in the West Bengal Coast”, Journal of the Indian Geographical Foundation, vol. IV-V 1997-98 winter PP 10-22.
- 6) “Cyclone Studies in India- a short review”. Journal of the Indian Geographical Foundation, vol. VI-VII 1999-2000 winter PP 72 81.
- 7) “Cyclone Hazard: A perception survey on sea-fishing and beach-tourism in West Bengal Coast” Hazard Perception And Disaster Management, published by Shivnath Shastri College, June, 2007.

