

KAJI NAZRUL BIRTHDAY:

The Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women annually celebrates the birthday of Kazi Nazrul Islam, honoring the revered poet and revolutionary figure. The event is marked by cultural programs that resonate with Nazrul's spirit of rebellion and poetic brilliance. Students perform recitations, sing songs, and engage in discussions that reflect upon his contributions to Bengali literature and Indian independence. These celebrations not only pay tribute to Nazrul's legacy but also inspire the students to embrace his ideals of freedom and equality. The college's dedication to preserving and promoting cultural heritage is evident in the meticulous organization of this event, making it a significant day in the academic year.
